

Can you deliver clear thinking in a complex world?

Britain's most accurate pollster* is looking for highly motivated graduates to join us in summer 2012.

As part of the pilot ICM academy, we are looking for talented individuals to occupy several Graduate Trainee positions in our Covent Garden offices.

Successful entrants to the ICM Academy will rotate through several departments across the ICM Group gaining on-the-job experience in social & government research, omnibus studies and in specialist research areas such as retail, technology and financial services. Trainees will gain knowledge and experience in various quantitative and qualitative techniques, as well as operational support in the form of data processing and f2f, telephone and online data collection.

Are you a current final year or Masters student with a predicted or achieved 2:1 or 1st class degree with excellent written and presentation skills and the ability to confidently analyse data tables? Do you have previous experience of using primary research or experience of SPSS or statistical modelling?

If you think you can deliver clear thinking in a complex world, please send a CV and a covering letter of no more than 500 words to J.C.Paci@exeter.ac.uk by 11.05.2012
