

The Leverhulme Trust

International Network on
New Families; New Governance

THE UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE

Leverhulme International Network on New Families, New Governance

Workshop 2: ‘Delegalization’ and new forms of Governing ‘The Family’

Venue: Level 10 Law Building, University of Melbourne, 185 Pelham Street, Carlton.

DAY TWO: Monday 15 April

Session times	Session titles/ presenters
8.30am	Registration and coffee
9.30am	Introductions and Welcome (Chair: Professor Cathy Humphreys, Social Work, the University of Melbourne)
9.40am – 1pm	Session One: Responding to Diversity <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Professor Fiona Arney, Australian Centre for Child Protection ○ Professor Gillian Douglas, Cardiff University Law School Short Break <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Professor Karen Czapanskiy, University of Maryland ○ Judge Paul Grant, President of the Victorian Children’s Court
1pm	Lunch
2.30-5pm	Session Two: Protection, Surveillance and Rights: (Chair: Dr Rachael Field, QUT) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Dr Nathan Harris, Regulatory Institutions Network, Australian National University ○ Dr Julie Doughty, Cardiff University Law School Short Break <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Professor Ian Butler, University of Bath ○ Professor Dorothy Roberts, Northwestern University
5-6pm	Free Time (drinks at the University Faculty Club which is adjacent to workshop venue)
6-7pm Venue: Woodward Conference Centre (adjacent to the workshop venue)	Len Tierney Memorial Lecture Kerry Arabena, Professor of Indigenous Health and Professor and Director, Onemda VicHealth Koori Health Unit, University of Melbourne, presents the Len Tierney Lecture within the Dean’s Lecture series. Topic: When Ink Kisses Paper: Creative Thinking in Monocultural Times
7.30pm	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Following the Dean’s Lecture, presenters from the Leverhulme International Network will join the Dean, Professor Arabena and Professor Cathy Humphreys for dinner. ○ For others, a self-funded dinner is organized in Federation Square at the Ajani Restaurant. Professor Marie Connolly will join this group. Please RSVP to shingler@unimelb.edu.au by 8 April.

DAY TWO: Tuesday 16 April

Session times	Session titles/presenters
8.30am	Coffee
9am-9.15am	Welcome to Day Two (Chair: Professor Helen Rhoades, Law, University of Melbourne)
9.15am-12.45pm	Session Three: Re-Imagining Regulation <ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Dr Rachael Carson, Research Fellow, Australian Institute of Family Studies and Belinda Fehlberg, Professor of Law, University of Melbourne○ Professor Anne Barlow, University of Exeter○ Professor Frederik Swennen, Antwerp University Short Break <ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Professor Margaret Brinig, University of Notre Dame (USA)○ Professor Judith Masson, University of Bristol
12.45-1.15pm	Concluding Remarks and finish (Professor Marie Connolly, University of Melbourne and Megan Mitchell, National Children's Commissioner)
1.15pm	Lunch

Please Note:

Session Structure

Speakers will provide a briefing paper in advance (2,000 words). The brief presentation (10-15 minutes maximum) will therefore enable optimum small group and whole-of-forum discussion time within each session.

The Leverhulme Network Planning Meeting will take place after lunch (2.30pm-4.30pm)

This will involve all members of the Leverhulme International Network who will plan the next workshop in Notre Dame.