

SSIS EDI Excellence Awards

Rewarding students for impact in advancing the Equality, Diversity and Inclusivity (EDI) agenda in the College of Social Sciences and International Studies (SSIS)

About the College of Social Sciences and International Studies at the University of Exeter

All our programmes are based on research-led teaching and are structured to offer growing disciplinary expertise while developing key generic skills sought by employers. With us, our students have the chance to study in a supportive environment with excellent facilities and amenities in a strong student community.

Social and Environmental Justice are pillars of our College vision and strategic goals and this is what we invite you to partner with us on. We are developing EDI Excellence Awards to recognise and reward the tireless work done by our students that leads to impactful change in advancing the College EDI agenda.

The categories of these awards will align with the University values which are:

- Ambition
- Challenge
- Collaboration
- Community
- Impact
- Rigour

Each award will have a monetary value of £350 and be accompanied by a certificate from the Pro-Vice Chancellor's Office and the Sponsoring Company.
